

Purgatory

Words & Music by Danny Meyer

Nothing I hear, nothing I see, there's only darkness enlacing Silence around, silence in me, don't feel no flame in me blazing What happened last? What brought me here? Memories feel like dying embers
A last, loudish bang, a pained, scary scream; last things, I'll ever remember

From dust we came, that's what they preach, and it's where we will return to But what's beyond this lifeless flesh, beyond the years, we have been through?

Is it the end, will there be more, will there be an over all justice?
All of my fucking life I just thought 'bout whatever my lust is

Have I been good, have I been bad, the holy principle, the flames of purgatory will tell

HELLFIRE, HELLFIRE

Stairway to heaven or the highway down to Satan's door, I smell the burning out of hell

Forgive

In the end, I will believe

Will I ever be released?

But I know I'm gonna bleed

Till the end I've got to pay for every deed

Never imagined diyin' so soon, that must be karma's selection

What could await me there but pain for my malefactions

Don't pull me down, I'll show regret, I'll pay what's needful to settle

I'm beggin on my bloody knees, don't send me down to the devil

will know

HELLFIRE, HELLFIRE

Stairway to heaven or the highway down to Satan's door, already feel that tortures glow

Forgive

In the end I will believe

Will I ever be released?

But I know I'm gonna bleed

Until I've paid my deeds

non occides - non moechaberis non furtum facies - non occides

Never been good, ever been bad, my holy principle, the flames of purgatory they yell

HELLFIRE, BURN, HELLFIRE

Desire for heaven will stay a hopeless dream forevermore, I gotta burn in flames of hell

Forgive

In the end I will believe

Will I ever be released?

But I know I'm gonna bleed, I'm gonna...

Forgive

In the end I will believe

Will I ever be released?

But I know I'm gonna bleed

Till the end I've got to pay for every deed
